Rules Of Badminton

Apr 19, · Does anyone have the badminton rules in Urdu? We have neither any girl nor boy in our team so we need the rules and regulations. Carrying the birdie across the net. Two players can not play at the same time. All players must change sides after the shuttlecock was returned to the service court. Players can not take a running start for the shuttlecock. For F.A. badminton court dimensions (20x44m) Only two players can play in a single court and players should not try to serve from outside the court. A birdie can be played as long as it remains on the opposite end of the service line. If a birdie leaves the service line, it is considered a fault. Why? Because if a player hits the birdie, he is no longer outside his own service line Badminton Badminton Rules - badminton In badminton, 3 or 5 points are usually the usual score for a game, with the odd 5-all game seen at times. At the start of a game, the shuttlecock is placed in the service line. The shuttlecock can not be touched before the serve, but the player may do anything when the shuttlecock is in the air and, in particular, when it is at the end of its movement. One must play until the shuttlecock is on his/her service line or touches the net without passing through a line. In the case of a service fault, the player must 'toss' the shuttlecock back to the other side of the court and continues with the serving, or shall be subject to a service penalty. The player who has served the ball should not return it to the other side of the net before it touches the ground, except to wait for the jump of the opponent, or, if the player is returning a fault, should toss the shuttlecock and continue serving. A player who interrupts his/her opponent's service or hits the shuttlecock with his/her racket must incur a one point penalty. A player who does so intentionally must serve a penalty stroke. In the case of an attacking player hitting the shuttlecock with his/her racket, the opponent serves a penalty. If both players get a maximum of 5 points in their service, the game is won by the first to 10 points. If the score is tied at 12-all, a 'Super Tie-break' ens
